IMPORTANT NOTICE

Rebating is an offence under the Control of Insurance Act.

Regulation 23

- (1) No person shall offer either directly or indirectly as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue a contract of insurance any rebate of the whole or part of any brokerage commission or premium (except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with a published prospectus or manual or schedule of rates of an insurer) which will have the effect of circumventing the maximum and minimum rates of premia fixed under section 21 of the Act.
- (2) No insurer shall pay to a broker or insurance agent as brokerage commission fee or other remuneration, any sum in excess of the amount prescribed for or in respect of each prescribed class of insurance business placed by that broker or agent with that insurer.
